Naples, Auguſt 14.

A FEW Days ago the Marquis Brancaccio, Superintendent and Secretary of the King's private Revenues, having reſigned his Employment, the King gave it to the Marquis de Gregorio, who on the 7th Inſtant took Poſſeſſion of it accordingly. On the 8th and 11th Inſtant their Majeſties went over to the Iſland of Procida to ſhoot Pheaſants, and returned to Court in the Evenings. On the 9th Notice from M. Martinez, Commander of the Squadron of the King's Xebeck Cruizers, came to the Secretary of State's Office, that on the 30th paſt, off Brindiſi, on the Coaſt of Calabria, he had taken a large Tripoline Row Boat Cruizer, mounted with 4 Cannon, and about 50 Men, whereof ten were killed in the Engagement, as many mortally wounded, and the reſt made Captives.

Rome, Aug. 18. The Pope, to provide againſt the Scarcity of Silver Species in the Country, has conſented to the Propoſal of the Congregation of the Treaſury, for Coining into Crowns, Half Crowns, and two Paols Pieces, the Lingots of Plate and Pieces of Eight for a Million and Half of Crowns, depoſited in the Caſtle of St. Angelo, which were lately remitted from Spain, in Conſequence of the Treaty concluded between the Catholick King and the Pope, as an Equivalent for yielding to the former the Diſpoſal of ſuch Eccleſiaſtical Benefices in his Kingdom, as are ſtipulated in the ſaid Treaty. On the 11th anchored at Civita Vecchia, by contrary Wind, from Naples, two Neapolitan Gallies, eſcorting a Convoy of Tranſport Veſſels with Troops to relieve the Garriſons of the Preſidii. On the 12th anchored likewiſe at Civita Vecchia two of the Pope's Gallies, on their Return from a Cruize on the Coaſt of Calabria, and, after having refitted, put again to Sea in Purſuit of the Barbary Pirates. On the 13th Cardinal Mellini had a long private Audience of the Pope to communicate to him the Commiſſions he was charged with from the Court of Vienna. The Pope, to compleat the Diſpoſitions to fill up the Vacancies in the College of Cardinals, in which the Nuncios at the Courts of crowned Heads are included, in the laſt Week cauſed the Liſts, with the Names of the Prelates whom he has deſtined for their Succeſſors, to be ſent to the different Courts, in order to receive their Approbation.

Liege, Aug. 26. The Lady of Count Uhlfeldt, Grand Maſter of the Empreſs Queen's Houſhold, arrived here this Afternoon from Spa, where ſhe had been drinking the Waters for ſome Time, and intends to proceed Tomorrow on her Journey for Vienna by the Way of Bruſſels; at which Place ſhe will make a Stay of eight or ten Days.

Madrid, Aug. 27. The Baron de Wenſe, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Denmark, left this Place on Thurſday the 23d Inſtant, without taking Leave of their Catholick Majeſties, on Account of the Diſputes ſubſiſting between the King his Maſter and this Court, with regard to the Treaties, which the Danes are engaged in with the States of Barbary. The Marquis de Grimaldi, who has lately been appointed Ambaſſador to the States General, will have Leave to make a Tour into Italy, before he ſets out for the Hague. The great Drought, which has entirely deſtroyed the Harveſt this Year, in almoſt every Part of this Kingdom, ſtill continues; and publick Proceſſions are again ordered to be made for Rain.

Stockholm, Aug. 27. M. de Malzhan, who was formerly the King of Pruſſia's Miniſter at the Court of Dreſden, and who is now to reſide at this Court, in Quality of Envoy Extraordinary from that Prince, arrived here ſome Days ago, and is forthwith to have his firſt Audiences of the King and the Royal Family, the Baron de Rhodt, whom he ſucceeds, being to ſet out for Berlin as ſoon as poſſible.

Bern, Aug. 29. M. Chavigny's Letters to the Intendant of Franche Comté, relating to the Incurſions of the Peaſants of Burgundy on the Territory of this State, and the ſeveral Outrages committed by them, have already produced the Effect, and procured the Canton of Bern all the Satisfaction they could reaſonably expect or deſire; and as it is not queſtioned but the Court of France will approve and more amply confirm what has already been done in order thereto, that Affair, which has occaſioned ſo ſo much Buſtle and Uneaſineſs here, may now be looked upon as entirely at an End. The Intendant, on receiving the French Ambaſſador's Letters, repair'd immediately to the Place where the Exceſſes complain'd of were committed, having previouſly invited the Bayliff of Nyon to meet him there; and after the moſt ſevere Reprimand to the Curate, who was ſuſpected to be the Inſtigator of thoſe Acts of Violence, as well as to the Subaltern Officers who connived at them; and after impriſoning the only one of the Ringleaders, who had not made his Eſcape, he order'd the Cattle that had been carried off to be returned. He farther ſentenced thoſe who were concerned in this Depredation, to pay 600 Livres for Damages; and publickly declared, that if ever they obliged him to make another Journey thither on the like Occaſion, as many as were concerned ſhould be hanged on his Arrival. With Regard to the Cattle, which the Swiſs Subjects had taken by way of Repriſal, the Intendant left it entirely to the Option of the Bayliff of Nyon to keep or return them as he ſhould think proper: But M. Sturler, who would not be behind Hand, ordered them immediately to be ſent back and delivered to the Owners.
